THE LOSE

We have seen only the glimmering of divine glory and of the infinitude of knowledge and wisdom; we have, as it were, been working on the surface of the mine when rich ore is beneath the surface to reward the one who will dig for it

San Fernando Hall

Home of the scientists, San Fernando Hall, whose TREASURES include burettes, skeletons, and embalmed felines.

La Sierra Hall

La Sierra Hall, where we DIG FOR verbs, texts, causes, events and solutions.

Campus Snow

Daily we DISCOVER new beauties on our campus, and on Sabbath we worship in the inspiring sanctuary, La Sierra church.

La Sierra Church

Cafeteria

We get our GRUBSTAKES at the Spanish-style cafeteria and live in palm-framed dormitories like Angwin Hall.

DEDICATION

One-hundred years ago prospectors swarmed over the hills of California in quest of gold; today we dedicate this 1949 Meteor to the LASTING TREASURES OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION, for which the students of La Sierra College are searching.

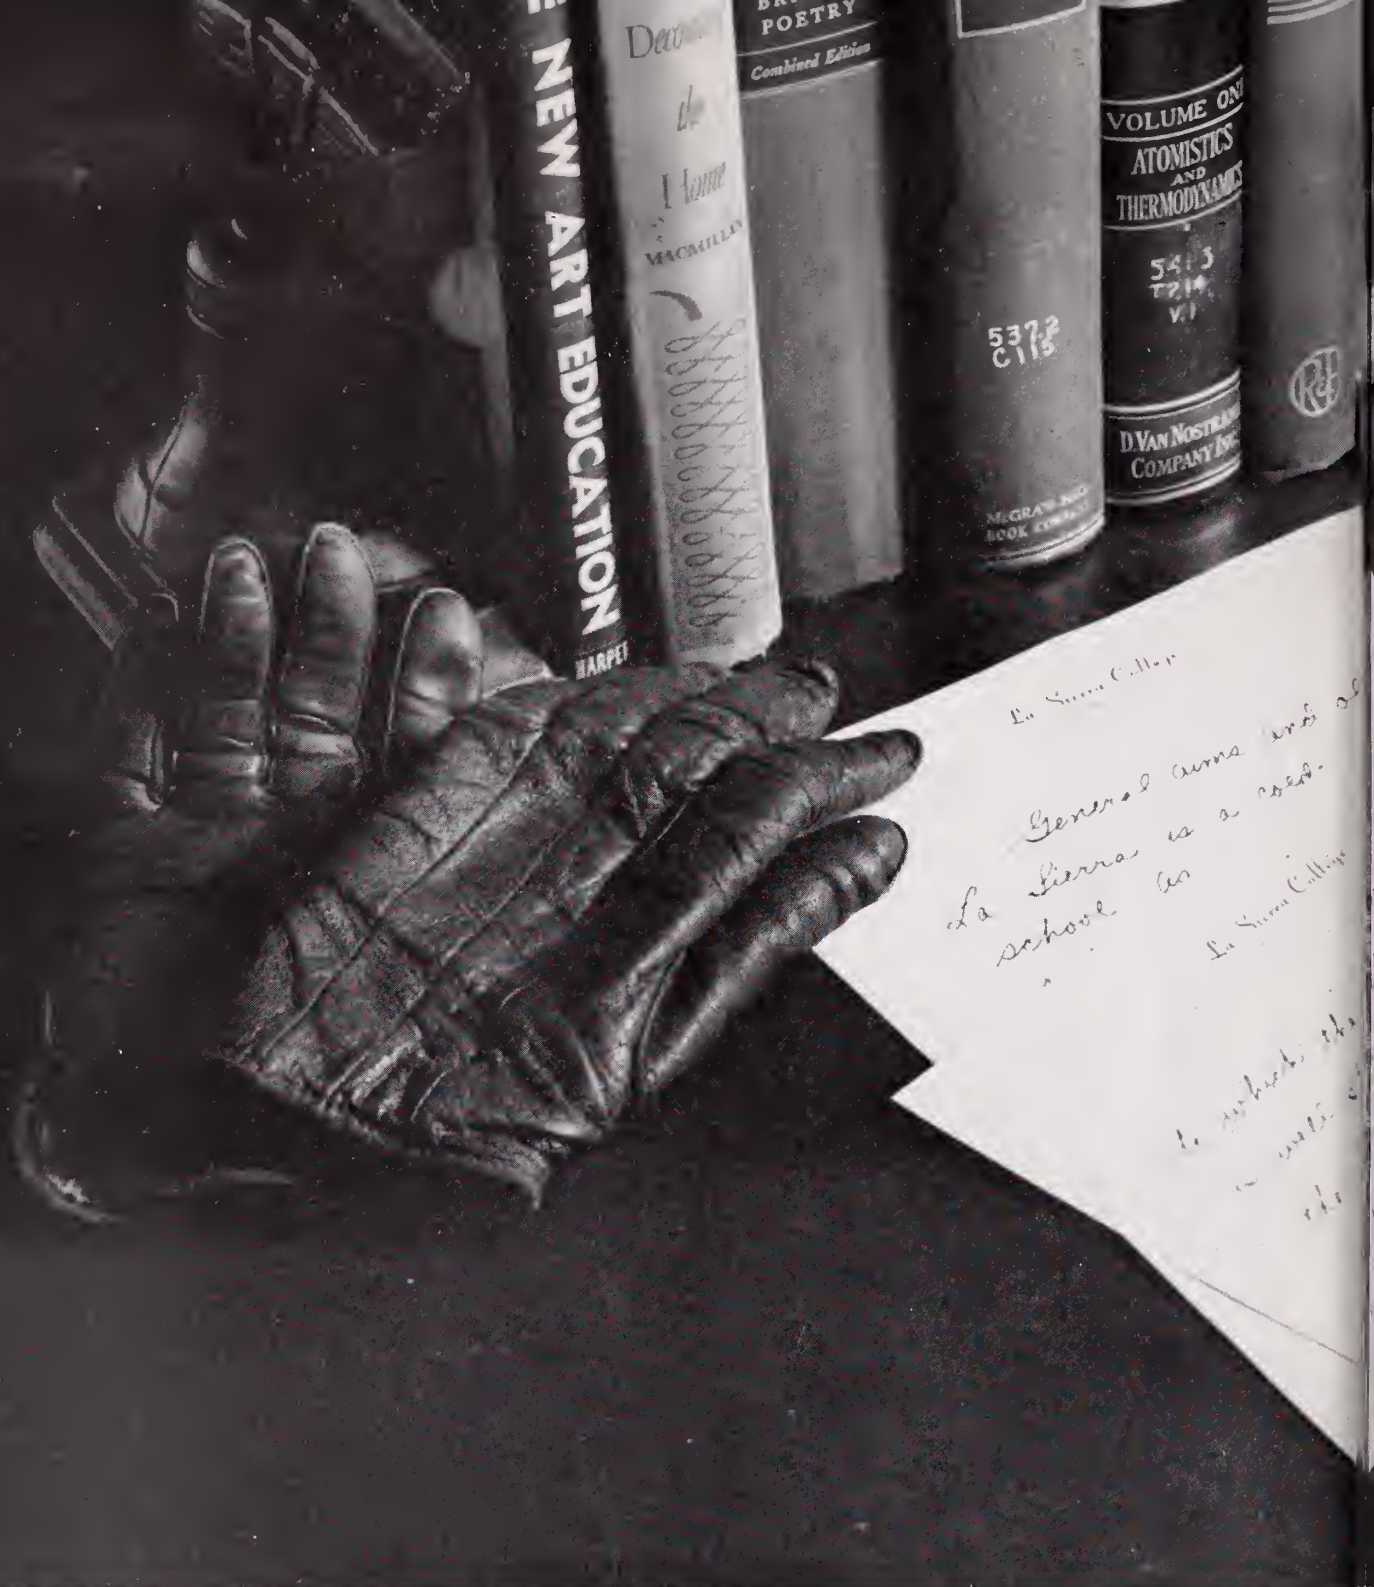

In Memoriam

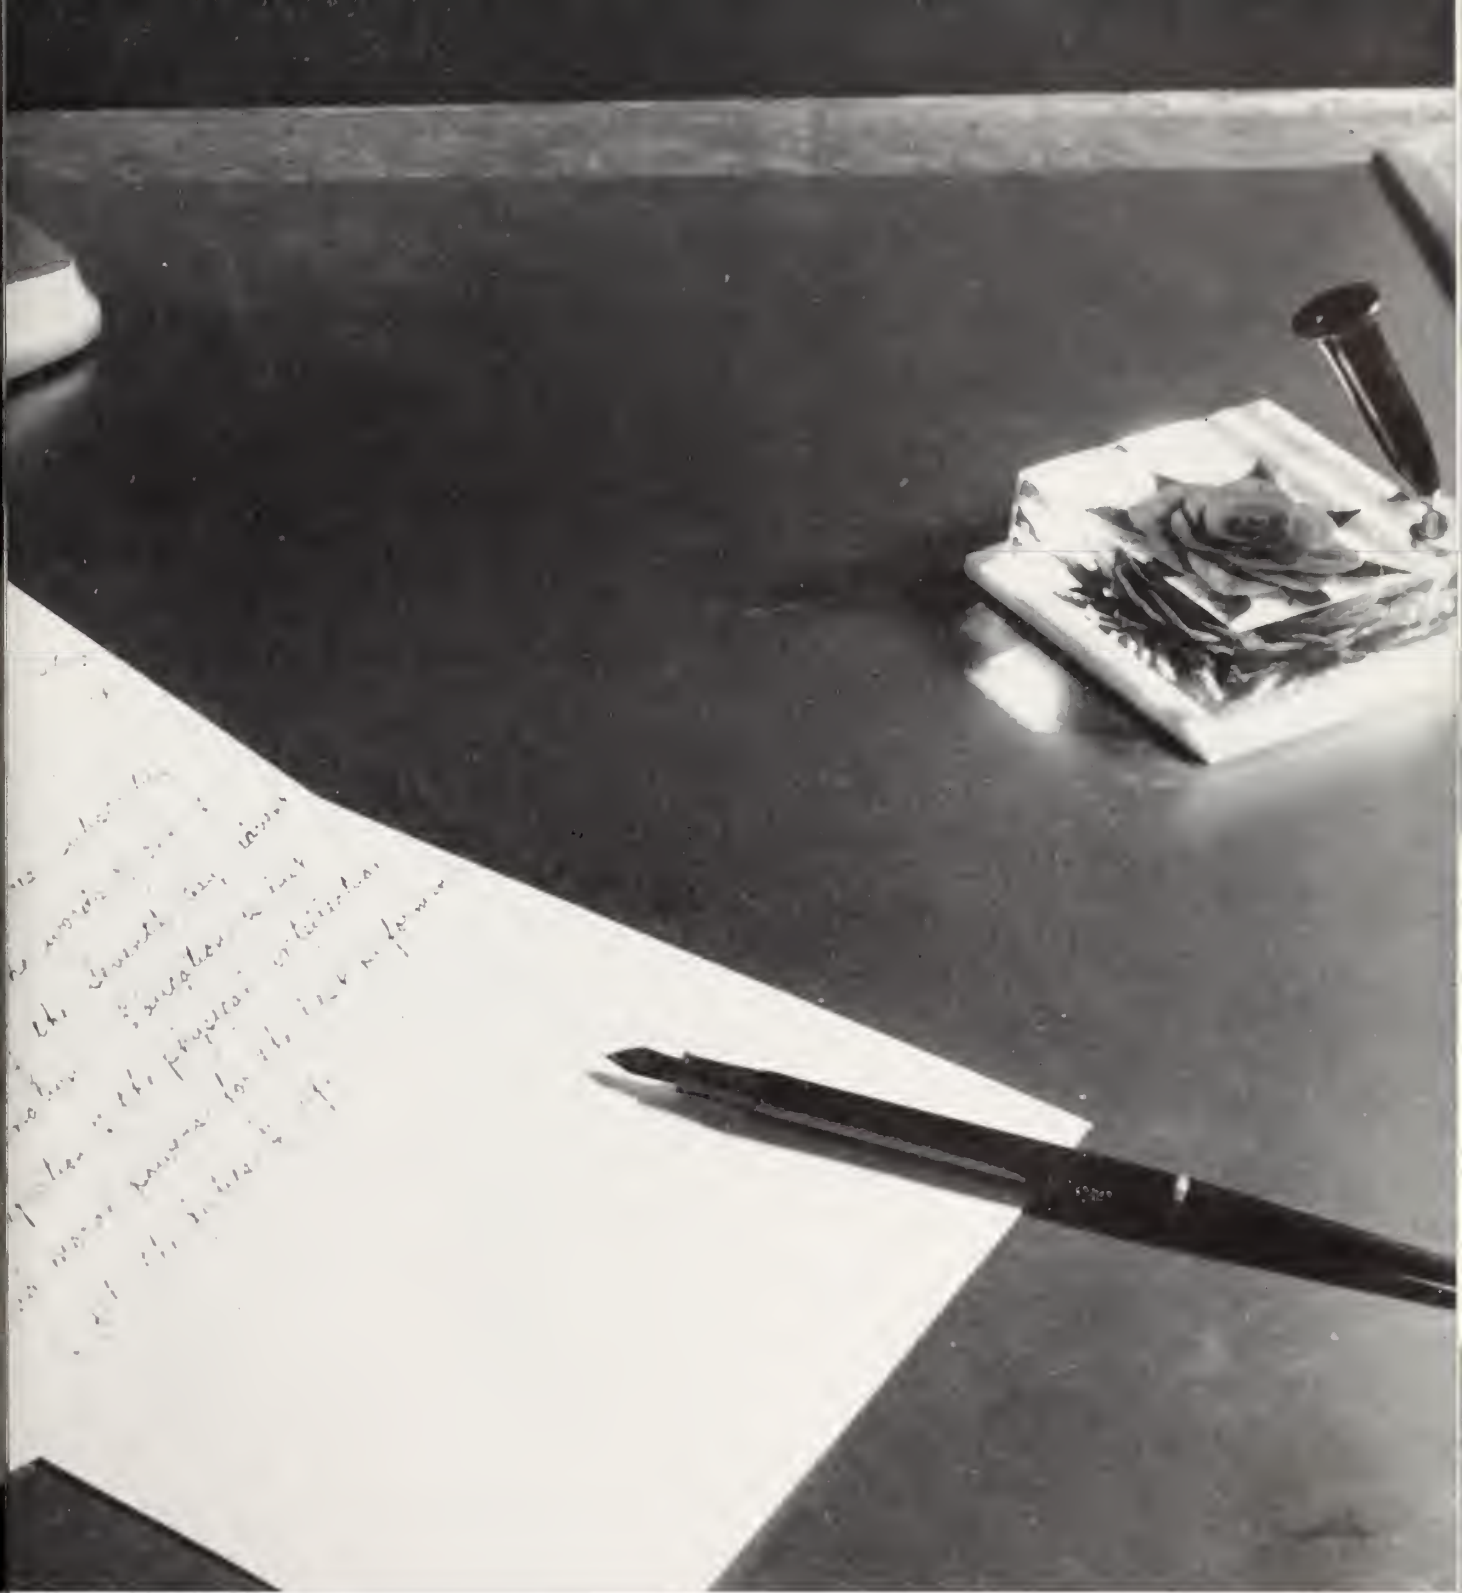

Doris Carlsen

"She was well fitted for the work and life of a Christian college. . . . We loved her and she loved us. . . . She was a courageous woman for God. She always stood staunch for truth, for the cause of God. She was a completely conscientious woman. What she believed she ought to do, what she saw was right, that she did, no matter what it was. . . . Here was a woman who doubtless would die, if it came to that, rather than do a wrong thing. What a believer in God and truth she was! She was free in her faith. To be near her was to discover that the practical fact of her religion was Jesus Christ. . . . She took us all in, and there was room for us all in her heart. The love that surged within her was no brook, babbling over its shallows, but a well, like Jacob's, full of living water of which all might drink freely, only one must needs have something to draw with, for the well was deep. . . . So, Doris Carlsen, farewell. God bring us all to thee when the eternal morning breaks. We bid thee farewell and say of thee to whom that morning of eternity must soon come, 'Henceforth there is laid up for thee a crown of righteousness which the Lord the righteous Judge will give thee at that day.'" —Tribute to Doris Carlsen, by Edward Heppenstall.

GOLD IS WHERE YOU FIND IT

"A little house well filled and a little land well tilled . . . are great riches."

Marilyn, Dennis, Mrs.
Anderson, Constance, Dr.
Anderson, and Donald — our first family. They well personify the friendly spirit of La Sierra College.

G. T. ANDERSON, Ph.D.
President
LA SIERRA COLLEGE

A century ago hardy Argonauts made their way to the El Dorado of the west which held for them the promise of fabulous riches. As the news of the discovery of the precious metal reached them, farmers and clerks, workmen and ministers abandoned their occupations and set out for California. Some sailed round the Horn in any type of craft available to them. Others made their laborious way overland, and still others risked the perils of an isthmian crossing. All were drawn to the valley of the Sacramento by the magic word "gold."

There are seekers for treasure even today. We find them in Christian colleges across our land. We find them here at La Sierra College. They believe that

No solid gold can purchase wisdom,
Wisdom is more precious even than rubies.
No silver can be paid for her; . . .

The search for treasure was an exciting adventure for the forty-niners. The search for treasure is an exciting adventure today. For those who seek in sincerity the rewards are sure. All truth is precious, but exceeding all other in value is the treasure of sacred truth. "The Bible is the mine of the unsearchable riches of Christ." Upon this premise rests the entire educational program of La Sierra College.

The following pages provide a glimpse into life on the campus of La Sierra College and portray varied activities of those who are engaged together in the stimulating task of seeking for the treasures of wisdom. This volume is a chronicle of forty-niners of the twentieth century who are eager and alert and tireless in their quest for hidden fortune.

NUG

GETS

Prexy and Advisor

It has been said that no one can please everyone. Yet, Miss Ortner and Walt Cason have come very close to doing so.

ASSOCIATED STUDENT BODY

Student legislative body, orators' kindergarten, granddaddy of other campus clubs, and thermostat of school spirit, the Associated Student Body had the enthusiastic support of the entire faculty and student groups.

ASB Executive Board

An executive committee can make or break school spirit. Ours literally manufactured it. Miss Irene Ortner, Frank Jobe, Joan Goude, Phil Dunham, Walt Cason, Colene Hooper, Herbert Dunham, Reuben Hilde, and Albert Maas.

... THE GRANDDADDY OF THEM ALL

LEFT WING IN ACTION Milton Murray exercises his belief in free speech.

Mr. Walter Crandall, Mun On Chang, and Douglas Fjelstrom guided the literary, financial, and distribution destinies of the Criterion.

THE CRITERION

TRUE EDUCATION

IS NOT THE FORCING OF INSTRUCTION

Chemistry

Bill Dunbar, Thornton Beckner, Carl Nydell, and Willem Khoe confer on a complicated experiment in the new chemistry laboratory.

Zoology

Gregory Robinson, Curtis Fisher, Millicent Dreyer, and Christian Christiansen look cool while taking a zoology lab semester test.

Aeronautics

Even college students are interested in model airplanes when they take aeronautics class. Chester Weeks, Walter Fahlring, Bob Macomber, Elvin Oblander, and Tim Walker.

ON AN UNREADY AND UNRECEPTIVE MIND

Physics

Mary Ellen Landis, Anita Westover, Roland McCart, and John Bruce tabulate the results of an experiment in physics.

Shorthand

Shorthand students take mass dictation in the secretarial science department.

MENTAL POWER MUST BE AWAKENED

Typing

Mrs. Joyce Digneo helps Bob Russell with a tip on how to increase his typing speed.

Machines

Earl Gillespie, Dorothy Franklin, and Dorothy Parker add electrically.

Newswriting

The newswriting class listens intently to Charles Collingwood, CBS Newscaster.

THE INTEREST AROUSED

Boneheads

The students call it "bonehead;" the teacher calls it "opportunity."

THE POWER OF SPEECH

SHOULD BE DILIGENTLY CULTIVATED

The speech choir performs both an educational and cultural function.

John Ward, Dennis Anderson, Wilbur Nelson and Betsy Ross appeared in the speech department Christmas program.

AND THE TRUE DIGNITY OF LABOR RECOGNIZED

Cabinet Making

Dick Wolgemuth puts the master's finish on his cabinet making project.

Architectural Drawing

Mr. Toews' classroom is filled with pensive pupils learning about the building trades.

Cooking

One might almost think these girls were preparing to run a home!

ORCHESTRA

The La Sierra Concert Orchestra achieved full symphony status once again. An extended tour in the spring helped to spread its fame.

QUARTET

Henry Barron, Moses Chalmers, Phil Dunham and James Adams, who are known collectively as the Ambassador Quartet, have a weekly broadcast on station KPRO.

ART

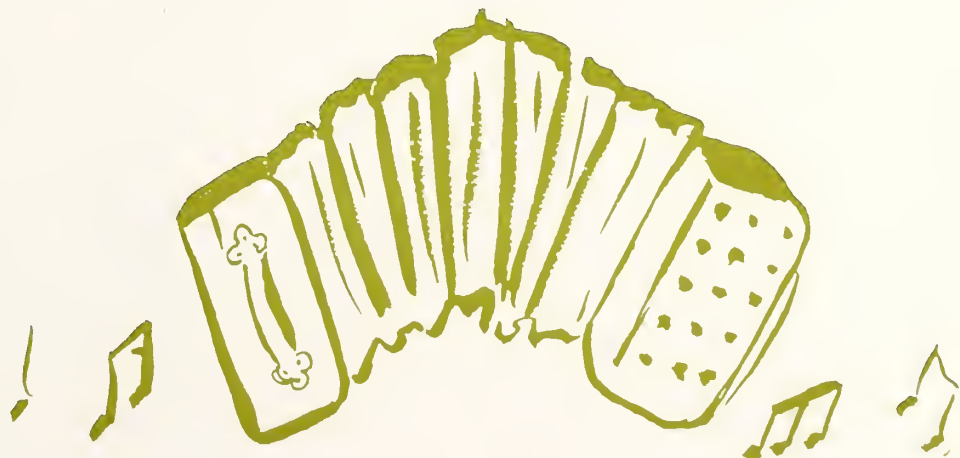

Bill Shasky, Yvonne Butters, Katie Jo Pierce, and Janet Nishiki strive to create beauty in the art department.

BAND

Under Mr. Walters' direction the band played a part in the campus counterpoint.

HEAVEN'S COMMUNION BEGINS ON EARTH
WE LEARN HERE THE KEYNOTE OF ITS PRAISE

EDUCATION IS THE

BEL CANTO

The warmth of female voices may explain the popularity of the Bel Canto — beautiful singers.

MEN'S GLEE CLUB

Sonorous basses and resonant tenors combine to give a real thrill to anyone who hears the Men's Glee Club.

HARMONIOUS DEVELOPMENT

CHOIR

Not only does the choir produce enjoyment for its hearers, but it is a source of enjoyment to its members. Not only is it enjoyable to hear them sing, but the choir members know that it is a great thrill to sing under the able direction of Professor Hamilton.

COLLEGIANS

For the time that it has existed this outstanding group has traveled far and wide, and won acclaim disproportionate to its age.

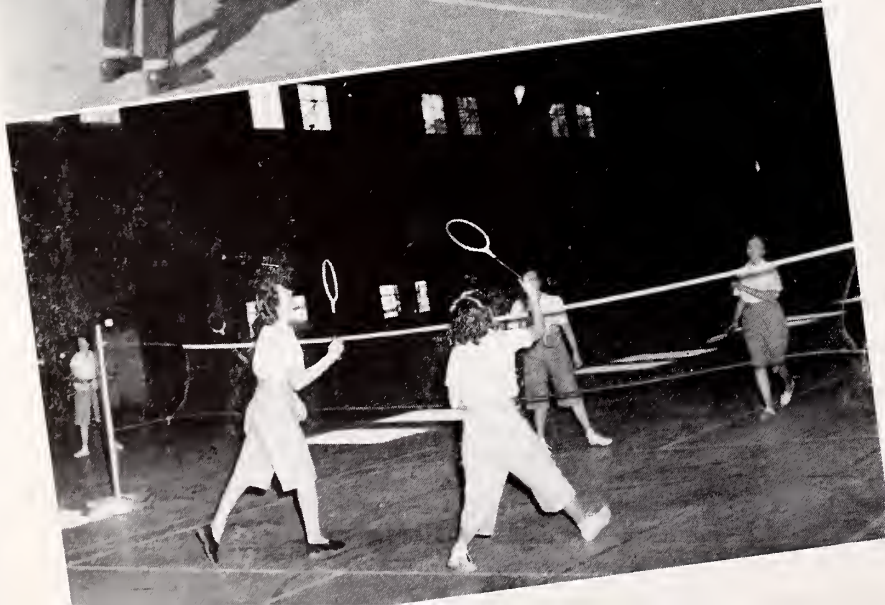

OF THE PHYSICAL

SPORTS

Volleyball, softball, and badminton help us to develop strong bodies for our minds.

THE MENTAL . . .

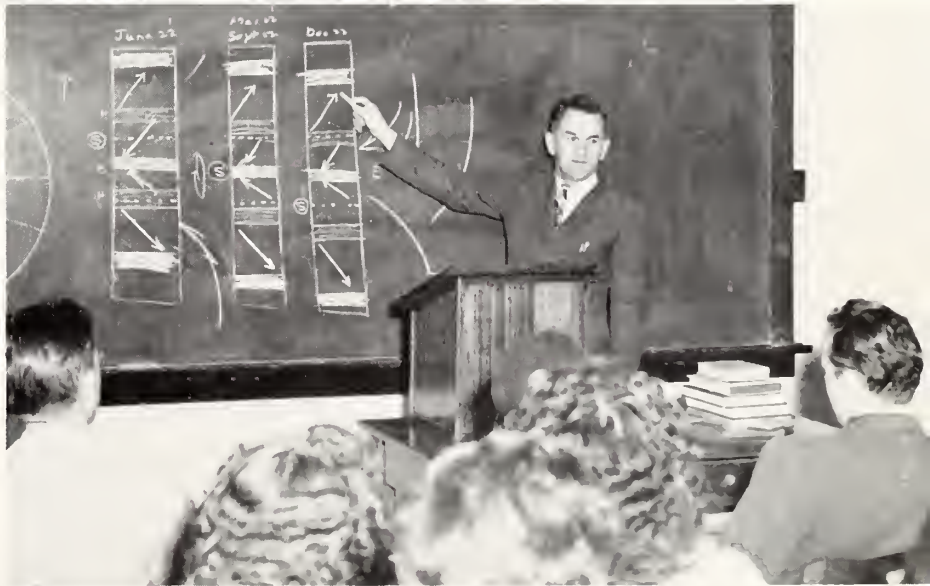

History

The members of the American history class enjoy a good laugh in cooperation with Doctor Airey.

Visual Aids

Doctor McDowell illustrates his teaching of teachers with a diagram.

Elementary Education

Practical experience in the moulding of juvenile minds is gained at our training school by Jean Hickerson.

AND THE

EPISTLES New Testament Epistles class inevitably produces a post-period discussion with Elder Heppenstall.

GIFT OF PROPHECY Duane Coon's panel discusses one of the phases of the Spirit of Prophecy in Elder Haussler's Gift of Prophecy class.

SPIRITUAL POWERS

EVANGELISM

Elder Blincoc and his associates held a twelve weeks' effort in Elsinore in connection with the public and field evangelism class.

GREEK

Elder Specht's Greek exegesis class looks for the deeper meanings in the Pauline Epistles.

THE

Yes, its tobogganing, at La Sierra!

It made good snowballs, too!

Here are some of the uses to which they were put.

A negative illustration helped us to improve our manners during Good Form Week.

WE CAMPAIGNED FOR OUR "CRITTER"

Dinner at the lodge restores energy to tired snow frolickers.

Even though we live in the sun, our students know how to ski in the snow.

HEADED FOR THE MOUNTAINS

Dean Matheson, Earl Dunnewin, Earl McGill, and Henry Barron glide during a hockey game.

CULTURALLY FROM THE RIDICULOUS

Their apparel is occasioned by the turn-about date night that the fellows were pleasantly entertained by on behalf of the girls.

Bob Whittaker, Yvonne Butterson, Betty Beach, Richard Schneider, Helen Szabo, Paul Hawks.

Wednesday night supper, primitive style.

Exotic costumes and sweet strains combine to make the Hawaiian group one of the most consistently charming on the campus.

Rich harmony and bubbling humor added to the appeal of the National Male Quartet.

TO THE SUBLIME

Virginia Cason and Mary Gullitt enjoy the friendly spirit which tenor Jan Pearce brought with his concert.

We were inspired by diminutive Serge Jaroff's magnificent Don Cossack Chorus.

A visit from the world's greatest viola player, William Primrose, climaxed our superb lyceum course.

WE ENTERTAINED OUR MOTHERS

Dr. Ola K. Gant addresses the Mother-Daughter Banquet.

THE BOARD

The annual Faculty-Board Banquet in its cafeterial setting.

SANTA CLAUS

Noel Newhard, Virginia Scott, Laura Mae Ross, Dean Mary Champion and Paul Schooley shared wishes and gifts around the Angwin Christmas tree.

WE DEVELOPED SPIRITUALLY

Elder Andreassen shared his rich experience with us during the autumn Week of Prayer.

Elder Yost held up "Christ the Gift and the Giver" as the theme of the spring Week of Prayer.

The annual Faculty-Senior Banquet.

SOCIALLY . . .

Derrill Yaeger and Maryanne Burgeson portrayed LSC life with background of an HMA mural for the PUC chapel program. The mural was Derrill's own work.

Weary travellers eat a welcome meal at the home of Dr. Percy Christian, president of PUC.

Participants on the La Sierra chapel program pose on the stage at PUC.

THE ALPHABETIC PUC-LSC EXCHANGE

Pacific Union College and La Sierra College enjoyed another year of Christian fellowship highlighted by the exchange programs.

The ASB president greets the SA president with a handshake that symbolizes our interscholastic friendship.

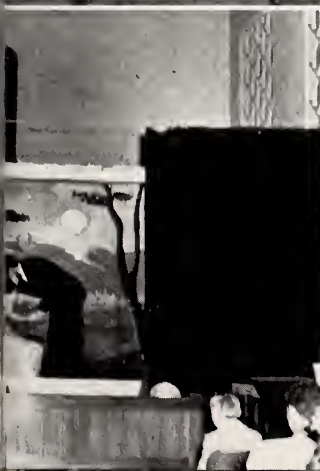

AND DIPLOMATICALLY

PUC-ites arrive on campus.

Greetings just couldn't wait until after the initial arrival to be exchanged.

A small portion of the crowd which gathered to greet our friends from the north.

Their entertainment included "A Year In A Night," the Meteor benefit program.
